The Spirit

Spirit and friendship were abundant as Homecoming week started the school year off right. Everyone was affected by the closeness the week long activities provided. New friends were made and old friends were remade. Most of all, class competition caused everyone to get involved and have fun.

1. Underclassmen travel in mobs at the Homecoming Parade. 2. The cheerleaders, Christi Call, Darcy Bennett, Jennifer Colbert, Cammie Curtwright, and Kellie Pipkins, enthusiastically ride in the Homecoming Parade. 3. Letha Page gives everyone her "Do you think I'm sexy" look. 4. Sheri Dunham and Rhonda Shouse take time out of their busy schedule to pose for a picture. 5. Gina Roberts and Kevin Norwood show extreme spirit at the Homecoming pep assembly.

1. Watching the Homecoming Parade, in downtown Muskogee, was more excitement than Mrs. Trzcinski could handle. 2. Sheri Dunham expresses her feelings about the entire situation on the awesome Senior Float. 3. Lisa Purget performs excellently (as usual) in the Homecoming Parade. 4. Debbie Hodges, Gwen Moses, and Julie Walker, show off the Senior Float with pride.

Hildale Administration and School Board

The Coronation

As the band started playing, the excited crowd calmed down and the ceremony began. Annette Smith was escorted by Robbin Weatherford, Kena Lufkin was escorted by Scott Byrd, Lisa Rogers was escorted by Kevin Haws, and finally the football Homecoming Queen for 1984, Shelly Aston, was escorted by John Shackelford to the center of the gym. The crown was presented by Bart Herndon and the flowers were presented by Brandi Byrd. Then the kiss . . . . Wow! What a kiss. After the royalty was seated, the cheerleaders built up spirit for the game and the Drill Team performed a routine to "Human Touch." The whole assembly was great.

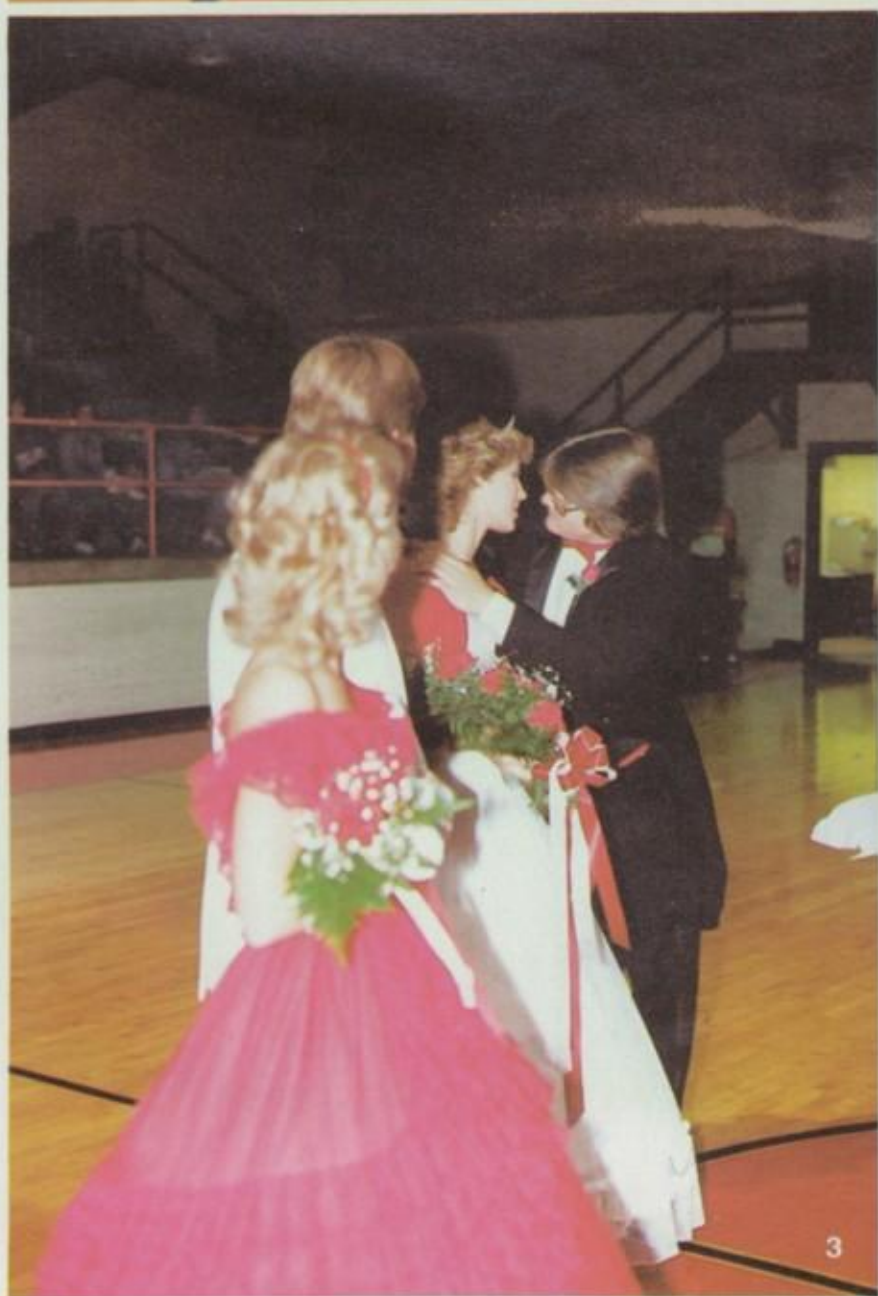

1. Members of the Drill Team "caught in the act" during their performance. 2. Junior attendant, Annette Smith, escorted by Robbin Weatherford gracefully cross the gym surrounded by Drill Team members. 3. Homecoming Queen '84, Shelly Aston, and her escort John Shackelford appear before the school at the pep assembly with their attendants: Lisa Rogers, Senior attendant and escort Kevin Haws; Annette Smith, Junior attendant and escort Robbin Weatherford; Kena Lufkin, Sophomore attendant and escort Scott Byrd. 4. Shelly Aston and Kevin Haws exchange glances as Lisa Rogers stands innocently by and as John Shackelford tries his best to remember how to tie a knot.

1. High School cheerleader Chris Reid enthusiastically leads the spirit at the pep assembly. 2. Monty Beck, Mike Tye, and Terry Boyd eagerly watch the assembly. 3. "Look out Shelly Aston, here comes the kiss of your life from John Shackelford." 4. The natives get restless as the pep assembly comes to a close.

Float Preparation

Two weeks before homecoming the work process began on the floats. First, a place large enough to build the floats had to be found. Next, materials and a trailer had to be obtained. Finally, the float itself had to be built! Wow, what a concept! Just think, students and teachers working together toward a common goal. A very rare moment!

Dedicated students and teachers from each class spent late nights working on their class floats. Each class felt sure that their float was the best and would easily win the float competition. Spirit at school was really "hot" as opinions about the floats were expressed. As usual, the undercover business was booming as spies from each class tried to "get a look" at another class float, just to keep an eye on the competition. Security was tightened by each class as cars were stopped by students and checked to see who was entering their restricted area. It was a blast.

In the end, the floats looked excellent and were completely ready for the parade competition. All of the hard work and dedication was well worth it.

1. Freshmen work on their float "Pirate Busters."
2. Mary Yates, Chris Reid, Robin Harrison, and Erik Rogers take time out as others work on the Sophomore float, "Seize the Pirates." 3. Mr. Cobb studies the situation. 4. Kevin Norwood, Randy Prior, and Missy Landrum work on the Senior float, "Sink the Pirates."

1. Cindy Lersbaugh, Missy Williams, Kim Staggs, Liz Seabolt, Mary Yates, Micki White working hard as usual. 2. Steve Henry watches Tara Smart making waves for the float. 3. Mrs. Cobb holds a board while Joe Westhoff keeps missing the nail. 4. Mrs. Maples and Angie Nidiffer check out the Freshmen float. 5. Julie Walker, Renee Morris, and Cheryl Lowrance stand in front of the "totally awesome" Senior float.

Homecoming:

The Parade

Enthusiasm and competition went hand in hand at the Homecoming Parade as the band and floats lined up for the parade. Spirit yells could be heard from float to float as each class readied their float and hoped to win in the float competition. The spirit parade put a complete halt to traffic in the downtown area for at least ten or twelve minutes as people from stores and businesses came outside to watch.

When it was all done, the Freshmen float took first place with their theme "Pirate Busters." The Seniors with "Sink the Pirates" took second place. The Juniors took third place with "Sink the Pirates" which left fourth place to the Sophomores with their theme "Seas the Pirates."

1. The winning Float, created by the Freshmen with the theme "Pirate Busters." 2. Kim Kiser and Mary Yates ride on the Sophomore float during the parade. 3. The Junior float "Sink the Pirates" and several macho football players: Rita Leinhart, Angela Burns, Amy Gibson, Keely Tatum, Robin Wood, and Susan Ayers ride in the parade. 4. The front of the totally awesome Senior float. 5. A side view of the completely massive Senior float with crew members aboard.

High School drum major Mike Felts leads the marching band as the parade starts. 2. High School cheerleaders Letha Page, Darcy Bennett, Christi Call, Jennifer Colbert, Cammie Curtwright, Chris Reid, and Kelly Pipkins encourage spirit in the parade. 3. "The Pride of Oklahoma", the Crimson Challenge leads the Homecoming parade. 4. The Synchronicity Dance Team struts their stuff in the parade. 5. Catherine Rogers and Sherri Randolph lead the Sophomore float in the parade.

Dress Up Day

The day of truth came during homecoming week as students let their real personalities come out on "Dress Up Day." There were slobs, preps, punks, thugs, and your everyday common boring jeans and concert t-shirt people. The hallways looked like a colorful jungle of people that could possibly threaten your life, if provoked. People wearing brilliant fluorescent colors could be seen everywhere. Those who weren't wearing fluorescent colors were wearing dark sunglasses to protect their eyes from those who were.

It was a fun day for those who dressed up and those who didn't, but everyone laughed at those who did.

1. Jennifer Colbert and Kellie Pipkins mix in well with the other animals in the Biology room. 2. Andy Weidel models atop his Suzuki after riding it to school in his sundress. 3. John Church tries to attack the photographer as Johnny Williams stands back. 4. Michelle Haltom sits innocently by as David Reitnauer warms the desk top and Scott Gaddy works busily on homework. David was upset because he forgot to dress up.

1. Lisa Rogers and Jennifer Munson express freedom of religion. 2. Scholar Mary Yates hurries for class. 3. Chris Reid was late for school and didn't have time to "get ready." Laurie Havron studying as usual. 4. Kelly Wallace and Michelle Cline exchange fashion news between classes. 5. Cammie Curtwright, a little more underdressed than usual, displays her typing skill.

Homecoming:

The Dance

After the football game it was time to "party." The Student Council sponsored dance with music provided by Phantasia was excellent. People were really "wierding out" and having a good time. The royalty didn't remain on their thrones for long because the temptation to dance was too much for them to handle. They just had to "get down" with everyone else. The dance continued to sizzle until everyone was forced to go home at twelve thirty in the morning. It was traumatic for everybody. All in all it was great!

1. Tara Smart and Tommy Hasselbalch teach each other to dance. 2. It looks like a small riot, but it's just a group of students "jamming out." 3. Sherri Randolph and Liz Seabolt, doing what they call dancing. 4. Debbie Canterbury and her boyfriend share an intimate moment with eyes watching. 5. Students enjoying the Homecoming dance.

1. Erik Rogers, Sherri Randolph and Liz Seabolt coordinate their act at the dance. 2. Susan Ayers tries to act innocent but Sheely Aston really knows the truth. 3. Stephanie Smith, Annette Smith, Brandi Muret, Monica Mabry and Tommy Hasselbalch try to coordinate their act, but just can't get it together. 4. Katrina Coffman and Kim Grogg can "feel" the beat. 5. Greg Bell gives a new meaning to the term "get down."

Homecoming:

Game Action

The homecoming game against Locust Grove Pirates was totally awesome. Nobody could remember the score, but we won anyway. The action in the stands among the crowd was almost as good as the game. People were yelling, cheering, and throwing things all throughout the game except at half-time, when the Crimson Challenge marching band took over the field for a performance second to none.

Doing What They Do Best

This year's graduating seniors are multi-talented. Their abilities range from rapping on the phone to chowing on Bean-Dip. Although this is now what they do best, we know, or at least hope, that sooner or later they will move on to bigger and better things in life.

Gina Roberts and Lori Bilyard rap a while at lunch.
 A night out at Mazzio's for Amy Irelan and Joe Westhoff. Aren't they cute?
 Larry Smith "CHILLS OUT" for a bit in English.
 Wonder if Debbie said yes or no.
 Lisa Rogers shows us her morning snack.
 Come on guys, get to work!
 Do you think I'm sexy?
 Gwen Moses does a good job of ignoring the camera.
 Isn't togetherness wonderful?!!
 Randy Prior admires the Science Fair projects.

Joe Westhoff

Valedictorian

Our valedictorian for the year 1984-85 is Joe Westhoff. Joe has been one of the outstanding leaders of our school because of his involvement in school activities, as well as many community projects. He has received many honors for his scholastic achievements. Joe is president of the student council and the National Honor Society this year. He has been involved in student council all through his high school years. He was voted Most Likely to Succeed by the senior class. Joe plans to attend OSU and major in accounting. His long term plans are to own his own company and enter politics. Joe's advice to high school students is: Use your ability, don't be afraid of failing, and most importantly, get involved.

Hilldale Academicisms

Jim Causon

Salutatorian

Jim Causon is Hilldale's salutatorian this year. Jim is involved in many school activities including band. He has been in the marching band, as well as the high school concert band and jazz ensemble. Jim has been active in student council as well as other school activities. He has been recognized with many honors through the years for all his academic achievements. Jim has been involved in many community activities such as the Boy Scouts of America and his church. Jim plans to attend OSU and attain a degree in accounting and computer programming. He has received many scholarships to attend OSU, including the John C. Coburn Scholarship. Jim's advice to other students: Never say "I can't" or "impossible", and don't let anything or anyone stand in your way of reaching your goals.

Locker Life

The hallway: Our special place for social activity between classes. The locker is an incredible invention because it can be used to store books, a closet for clothes, a trash can for thirty-six weeks of garbage a year, and a refrigerator for a coke between classes (If well hidden from friends). Just think, Wow! What a concept!

The hallway is the major route to most of the classrooms, and can hold approximately four-hundred and fifty people at one time. Of course, nobody can hardly move, but still, it's ours and we love it.

Homecoming

Basketball Homecoming was as spirited as always. Homecoming Queen was Senior Gwen Moses escorted by Greg Bell. First attendant was Debbie Hodges, escorted by Kevin Haws. Kevin Andrews escorted second attendant Angela Burns and third attendant Sheri Randolph was escorted by Tim Scifers. Crown bearer was Jarrod Moses, robe bearer was Tiffani Moses, and the flower bearer was Johnathon Moses.

Hilldale HIGH SCHOOL SPRING BREAK APRIL 1 TO 5

Spring Break: Breckenridge

Thirty-eight people from Hilldale went on the Spring Break ski trip to Breckenridge, Colorado. The snow, the cold, and the skiing made an atmosphere second to none. Minor injuries were sustained and site-seeing tours took their toll. Nevertheless, we were hitting the slopes by eight-thirty every morning. A real blast was had by all.

Look Mom! Facial Expressions

Much can be told by the expressions on one's face. Anger, love, happiness, and the famous, who, me? are the most popular. Usually, a camera will bring a smile to the face of anyone around it. As seen here, surprise and a camera are elements of a good time.

Dee and Us!

The 1984-85 yearbook staff went to the Kettle to find out the identity of K-107's Dee Kennedy.

When expecting a dingy, chubby blonde, we saw a beautiful, slim brunette.

In exchange for the yearbook, we received the listeners' Choice catalog, free bowling passes, and magazines with Johnny Rivers on the cover.

Do it again

The class of '86 had a lot ahead of them. The year was spent planning and holding the junior-senior prom and raising funds for the project. Winning first in the spirit contest during the football homecoming assembly displayed class pride. Now, they can start looking ahead to next year, their senior year.

Really movin' now

The sophomores were really awesome this year. Their class spirit was exhibited when they won the class spirit competition at the homecoming assembly. The Sophomore float "Sink the Pirates" came in a disappointing third. Third seemed to be the number for the sophomores this year. They also placed third in the yearly class competition. The Sophomores are really going to be a force to be reckoned with in the future.

This year's Lady Hornets were very intense in their practice to ready themselves to play at a higher level of competition. This year the Lady Hornets played the defending State Champs in the Shrine Tournament. There were three Lady Hornet players on the all-conference team, Shelly Aston, Gwen Moses, and Audrey Porter. Suzan Ayers made honorable mention. The Ladies finished the season with a 7-14 record. The team will return next year with 3 starters as well as depth on the bench.

Softball

The 1984-85 Lady Hornet Softball Team was young, but not inexperienced. The season record of 14-2 showed this. With only two seniors in the starting line-up, the Lady Hornets swept through Districts by run ruling both opponents. A loss in the first round of Regionals was only the Lady Hornet's second loss of the season. Next year promises to be even more rewarding for the Lady Hornets.

Hilldale Track

In 1985 HHS completed its fourth year of track. Fighting an uphill battle, the Hornets, without a field to practice on, took on the best of Eastern Oklahoma high schools and once again showed that strength, hard work, and desire could pay off. Gwen Moses, Audrey Porter, Brent Webster, Shelia Rippy, Sonya Floyd, Jennifer McIlwee, and Rhonda Howard all qualified for the State 3A Track Meet in Mustang. Nine new school records were established this spring. The Lady Hornets took home runner's-up trophies from the Poteau and Hilldale track meets. Gwen Moses ended an outstanding career as a 4 year state finalist in the 800 meter run and an eleven time state finalist overall. She also holds 6 school records, along with Keith Wood also ended very fine 4 year careers. Brent Webster qualified for the 400 meter dash for the 2nd straight season, finishing 3rd in the state. Gwen and Brent were voted team MVP's for the second straight season. With 43 returning underclassmen the Hornets could double their amount of 56 state finalist in the near future.

CLUBS/GROUPS

Student Council - Leadership

Student Council is an organization which trains students to become leaders. This year's council had its members attend BASIC Workshop, District Workshop, State Convention, and the National Student Council Convention. With all this new training, many new ideas came about. Some of the new innovations were a Get to Know the New Students Week, volleyball games, and a dunk tank at the fair. The Student Council also did the things for which it is famous, throwing dances. There were Homecoming, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and just plain have-fun dances. Stu-Co also sponsored the toy drive, canned food drive, and raised money for scholarships. Student Council has been a very busy organization.

Yearbook 1985

Yearbook had a new sponsor, Mel Wooten, and many new members of the staff were new to the yearbook experience. Still yet, it was a year full of fun times and shared joys. In May we started work selling ads. This included two days out of school, visiting local businesses and eating at Ken's Buffet. When we came back in the fall we had to start figuring out our theme and cover design. The only problem was none of us wanted the same thing. But eventually we did decide on one thing. We really did accomplish many things as a yearbook staff. Learning to do layouts, taking pictures, and mostly learning to work together as one were the real rewards of the class.

Hornet Cheerleaders

This year's cheerleading squad was a young one, consisting of two juniors and six sophomores. They were not, however, inexperienced at cheerleading. Almost all of them had served on cheerleading squads prior to this year. As a result they worked well together, cheering the teams on to victory while raising the spirit of the student body and other fans. Their efforts were appreciated by all who watched them and we hope they will continue to promote school spirit.

An awesome pyramid.

All of Hilldale was very proud of the dance team this year and their accomplishments. After a week of sweat and tears, these girls returned from camp with a spirit pom, the superior home routine trophy, and the highest ranking - the sweekstakes trophy. Through rain, snow, sleet, and hail, these girls continued to perform with smiling faces. They gave us a new meaning to the word "dedication."

Drill team restlessly awaits a performance.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, German Club, and The Teens for Christ are all very active organizations. Along with their regular meetings the German and Spanish Clubs had Christmas parties and a Foreign Language Party. The Teens for Christ had guest speakers throughout the year every Thursday morning at their meetings. The German Club took a trip to Tulsa in October to the German October fest. The students heard traditional German om-pa bands, saw traditional costumes, and ate wurst and brotchen.

Standing: Loretta Plunkett, Gina Roberts, Sandy Barns, Melissa George, Rita Lienhart, Lori Smith, Linda Schmidt, Camille Suttle, Tammy McCullan, Ronia Corbell, Mrs. Freeling, Sitting: Carrie Cochran, Sara Farr, Suzanne Fields, Barbra Novak, Dee Dee Brown,

Standing: Katrina Coffman, Lisa Waters, Jessie Mellon, Gina Cody, Stephanie Morris, Mrs. Freeling. Sitting: Sara Farr, Suzanne Fields, Barbara Novak, Dee Dee Brown, Lynn Gibson, Tracie McCaslin.

The FHA has been a very active group again this year. They raised money for the March of Dimes by selling suckers during February for Valentine's Day. During the year they also had guest speakers ranging from color consultants to police officers. There were also several students who attended the State Convention in Oklahoma City, where they learned to be good leaders.

Standing: Mrs. Shutler, Shelly Wallace, Kathy Methany, Joanna Roberts, Lisa Garrett, Suzanne Fields, Loretta Plunkett, Ronia Corbell, Lori Bilyard, Shari Haggard, Renee Morris, Melanie Fielder. Kneeling: LeAnn Hudson, Bretta Ward, Lisa Waters, Jessie

Mellon, Lynn Gibson, Missy Landrum, Sandy Barns, Dawn Young, Laurie Havron, Sheri Wolfe, Cathrine Rogers, Stephanie Morris, Holly Corbell, Dawn Rust, Robin Harrison, Cammie Curtwright, Candy Smith, Susan Moran.

Nike is a community service club. This year they have tried some new avenues of trying to serve the community. They adopted grandparents to visit at Christmas and other special occasions. They also sponsored a Bowl-A-Thon to raise money for Lisa Rila. They also did many other things to teach themselves about other people's needs in the community.

Jessie, Lisa, Cammie, and Renee are very attentive at a Nike meeting. Missy and Sandy are more interested in having their picture taken than what's going on.

Talent: Band Life

The Crimson Challenge marching band went to several contests throughout the year and received nothing less than superior ratings all year. The band also spent the day at Worlds of Fun while attending a contest at Kansas City. The Jazz Ensemble placed third at State Contest and also received superior ratings all year. The "Synchronicity" drill team took sweepstakes this year at Wilburton. Our flag team also received superior ratings.

Science Fair - '85

The Science Fair this year was a big success. It was obvious the students put a lot of hard work into their projects. Brian Tipton won Best Overall Project. First places included: Biology - Johnny Huggins, Zoology - April Ash, Botany - Kim Hoog, Chemistry - Cheryl Hoffman, Behavioral Science - Charla Clark, Medicine and Health - David Owens, Earth and Space - Steve Roberts, Physics - Heidi Young.

Endings

Endings: The Prom

This year's prom was held at the Elk's (again) and due to the work of the junior class and their parents it looked great. Music was provided by K107. The DJ offered to play "We Are the World" but in light of the almost violent opposition to the song, he relented and we were spared. Everyone began leaving around eleven o'clock. Most people went home to change clothes and head on to the after prom parties. The night ended on a sobering note, as police set up license checks, and followed people home from parties.

Mrs. Wooten and Brock Manning.

Checks

1. Amy and Joe check out the fountain. 2. Mike and Sheri check out each other. 3. Patrick wouldn't check out Shelly, so Shelly checked out Tim while Patrick checked out the pics. 4. Michelle mad again because David checked out everybody. 5. Monty and Shawna check out the music. 6. Everybody checked out Norwood. 7. Check out Brock and Diane.

Endings: Graduation

Tears, laughter, smiles, caps, gowns, tassels, red and white, and goodbyes - all these things will become cherished memories for the graduating class of 1985. There were 75 seniors who walked across the stage at the Muskogee Civic Center on May 28, 1985. Many saw it as the end of their childhood, a gateway to adulthood. Others saw it as their escape, a gateway to freedom. It did not really matter how it was seen, for it really was a gateway, and that gate has now been closed. Their days at Hilldale High School are only cherished memories.

1. Brock Manning proudly displays his diploma. 2. Audrey Porter is greeted by Mr. Matthews. 3. Lisa Rogers and David Reitnauer are ecstatic over graduating. 4. Lisa Purget looks thoughtful.

1. Brock Manning and Monty Beck, they finally made it. 2. Sara Farr and Joe Westhoff pose for the camera. 3. Pensive seniors await the beginning of the ceremony. 4. Steve Matthews prepares to move Beth Gray's tassel. 5. Tracy Hopkins nervously awaits his turn to walk across the stage.

Endings:

Goodbye

Old Irish Blessing

*May the Road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
The sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again, May God,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.*
